WASHINGTON PARK PEACE FEST AND BACK TO SCHOOL RALLY

K.L.E.O. Community Family Life Center and the Washington Park Consortium present the second annual Washington Park Peace Fest in light of all the recent violence that has plagued the city of Chicago.

Chicago, IL – On August 28, 2010 at 10:00 am (K.L.E.O.) Keep Loving Each Other Community Family Life Center and WPC will take a much needed stand against youth violence by bringing together the community and government officials to gain control of this epidemic. Together they hope to celebrate and highlight multifaceted approaches to keeping peace. The initial approach will be to target those returning to school by providing them with supplies they need to succeed.

President of K.L.E.O., Torrey L. Barrett, invites you along with the Mayors office of Special Events, Secretary of State Jessie White, Chicago Police Department, and Chicago Public Schools, to name a few, to publicly develop a Peace Plan for the South Side of Chicago. The 2nd Annual Washington Park Peace Festival and Back to School Rally will take place on Saturday, August 28, 2010 from 10 AM to 6 PM at the KLEO Community Center Parking Lot, 119 E. Garfield Blvd. Through celebration coupled with information, they want to identify preventive practices and collaborate to fund possible solutions.

Programming planned for the day will include free food, free school supplies for children, vendors, and speakers. For your entertainment there will be live performances and special guest appearances.

Please come help support the efforts to bring peace to the Washington Park and Bronzeville neighborhoods, and the mid-south side. Together, the people of Chicago can make a difference.
